IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORY

MARTIN: In sad and loving memory of our husband and daddy, Otho W .Martin, who passed away three years ago, Oct. 26, 1956.

The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of the one who once sat there.

They say time heals all sorrow
And helps us to forget,
But time so far has only proven
How much we love and miss him yet.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my nephew, Gerald M. Harvey, who passed away on Oct. the 30th., six years ago.
Time rolls on and we remember,
Of the day our hearts were crushed,
When God took you, oh, so quickly,
And we all in gloom were crushed.
In the bloom of life death claimed you,
In the prime of manhood days,
But we hope to meet you and
Be with you always.

Aunt Ida.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my father, Thomas Harvey, who passed away 33 years ago, on Oct. 31, 1926:
Gone dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember,
None on earth could take your place.
Your presence is ever near us,
For you were the kind of father
Your loved ones will never forget.

Ida.

PLASTIC SURGERY

There is a great amount of interest in America in plastic surgery. It has become a common thing to have a nose restyling or ear - flattening operation; next, we are told, the face-lifting operation will become just as popular.

This is perhaps the most misunderstood of plastic operations — Face-lifting or face - smoothing is designed to erase the wrinkles around the eyes, across the cheeks, and under the chin.

An oblique incision is made on either side of the forehead beyond the hairline. It continues down into the tiny fold in front of each ear, curves behind it at the ear lobe. The incision then follows up the back and disappears.

All along the incision, a superfluous skin is removed. At the end of a few weeks' healing time, the scars remain. These scars are concealed in other one-fourth inch with make-up.

COUNTY ASC NEWS

The Appomattox County ASC Committee has commenced to accept applications for the 1960 Conservation Reserve contracts. ASC Chairman W. D .Hix III points out some of the contract requirements. Here are some of the things which farmers signing contracts may and may not do:

Land under a Conservation Reserve contract cannot be cropped or grazed.

2. The farmer must comply with all acreage allotments on the farm and must agree to reduce the total acreage of row crops and small grains by the number of acres placed in the Conservation Reserve.

3. An approved cover must be established on the land under contract and noxious weeds must be controlled.

4. He may not offset the reduction made under the program by bringing non-cropland into production.

Penalty for wilful violation of a Conservation Reserve contract is loss of pay for the entire year plus a civil penalty equal to half of what the payment would have been. A second violation will result in the contract being terminated — in addition to loss of payment and civil penalty.

If land under a 1960 Conservation Reserve contract is sold, the contract generally may be assumed by the purchaser only after it has been in effect for at lenst three years.

There are other important details which farmers who sign contracts should know, Chairman Hix said, and he urged them to consult the ASC office.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 41

The second meeting of Girl Scout Troop 41 was held Wednesday, Oct. 28. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. S. S. Shouse, the present leader. After this she went on with the business. She also asked if any Girl Scouts had outgrown their uniforms, if they would bring or send them to the Girl Scout Room on next Wednesday. These uniforms will be sold for half-price. If any former Girl Scouts would like to sell their uniforms, please bring them to the Elementary School next Wednesday afternoon. The leader also brought up the fact that the cook-out and hike, which had been planned for the 24th of this month, which was cancelled because of bad weather, has been planned for Nov. 7 or 14. We then discussed our badges and what we plan to do for the coming year. Our troop would like to ask if there are any people who would like to join the Girl Scouts, please come to our meeting next Wednesday. Then we should have some slides of the summer camp.

—Troop Reporter.

IN FASHION NOW

The day is past when the lady in the "know" has any complex about wearing glasses. The old complet to the effect that "men seldom make passes at girls who wear glasses" is no longer true.

Girls with less than perfect vision do not resignedly wear "utility" glasses. The modern lass chooses her glasses to "glamorize" her ensemble. Thanks to today's fashion-conscious world, the optician has become a very important cog in the life of the well-dressed woman.

You choose your glasses with many things in mind — the shape of your face, your hairdo, lipstick colors and makeup shades. It is possible to pick glasses that will actually do something to enhance your face and coloring.

The development of plastic substance for eye-glass frames has made possible many daring innovations in the design and decoration. Many of the new styles are upswept and intriguingly designed. They are decorated with every kind of glitter known to man, In common use by American women are the frames that have snap on collors for everyday use and snap on jeweled decorations for evening.

Glasses give some women an arresting individuality and chic that might otherwise be impossible for them. Proof of this is the fact that many women with perfect vision wear beautiful and enhancing frames with plain, unground glass.

Crop restrictions curb trading in cotton.

Mrs. Merle Lawson, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Smith and Mrs. Peggy Marshall will be in charge of the Canteen for the Bloodmobile visit, to be held on Nov. 20.

Mrs. Sudie Rowe advised that Doctors Matthews and O'Brien encourage all residents to take the Salk vaccine shots.

New members voted into the club were Mrs. Sonny Smith, Mrs. Al Fratrick, Mrs. Jack Matthews, Mrs. Peter Fulghum and Mrs . Robert Trent.

He had hard luck fishing, and on his way home he entered the fish market and said to the dealer:

"Just stand there and throw me five of the biggest of those bass."

"Throw'em? What for?" asked the dealer in amazement.
